

RESPECT FOR PRISON REGULATIONS

1. The administration is responsible for the operation of the prison and you are urged to cooperate with them by obeying the rules they have established. Your visit is a privilege and not a right.
2. Clear everything through the administration. If in doubt, ask.
3. Don't give anything to an inmate without permission. This includes candy, gum, cigarettes, money, reading materials, etc. If there is anything you want the inmate to have, be sure to clear it through the administration.
4. Make no promises that you cannot fill.
5. Be careful not to expose yourself to anything contrary to the rules of the institution.
6. Don't deliver letters to the outside (a criminal offense) or take any articles out of the institution given to you by an inmate.
