Stories of Inmates Who Found Freedom Inside and Out

Over 10,000 people are released from prison each week in the U.S. and up to 66% return to prison within three years because of new crimes or parole violations.

What is the answer?

GET FREE and STAY FREE: Stories of Inmates Who Found Freedom Inside and Out tells the compelling accounts of 11 inmates who have achieved and maintained physical and spiritual freedom.

These in-depth interviews will be difficult to read and may bring tears to your eyes and pain to your heart. The soul-baring accounts of dysfunctional families, chaotic neighborhoods, addiction, poverty, emotional pain, violence, and shallow goals led to very foolish choices. Once arrested, convicted, sentenced, and incarcerated the challenges became more intense. But these 11 sinners found the way to abundant life. They each, in their way and in their own time, decided to follow Jesus Christ.

"...thanks to the good works of David Lewis and the many members of Yokefellowship Prison Ministry who helped make those journeys possible. Each day by their caring and mentoring, the Yokefellowship Prison Ministry is giving in God's name hope to the hopeless and salvation to the souls of the lost."

Ernest D. Preate, Jr., Esquire
Former Pennsylvania Attorney General

"As you read through these accounts, you will find yourself marveling at the changes, cheering for their success, while wondering how it could have gotten so bad in the first place."

Scott E. Lash, Judge
Court of Common Pleas, Berks County, Pennsylvania

"These returned citizens from prison after many years, humbly open their journeys to us for the glory of God. We get to feel their deep pain and abuse. We see what caused them to start a positive reflection about life leading toward needed repentance."

John L. Rush
Former Executive Director, YPM, Founder of New Person Ministry,
Co-Founder of Justice & Mercy, Inc.

Tragic as they may be, these are stories of hope! There is encouragement and wisdom here for inmates, returned citizens, their families, the professionals who work with them, and all who believe that everyone who sins can change and that second chances can lead to men and women who bless the world. There are important lessons here for those who care about correctional ministry and for all of us who sin.
